

CODE OF ETHICS

Introduction

Orphans Feeding Foundation (OFF) is dedicated to supporting orphans and vulnerable people, with a particular focus on children in conflict zones. Our commitment to ethical conduct is paramount in achieving our mission. The following Code of Ethics outlines the principles and values that guide our actions and decisions.

1. Mission and Values

Our foundation is committed to upholding the highest standards of integrity, compassion and respect in all our activities.

Our mission is to support orphans and vulnerable people globally, as we believe that all children should be given the opportunity to learn and grow equally, regardless of their background, family situation or geopolitical environment, and we will pursue it with honesty, transparency and dedication.

2. Accountability and Transparency

- We are accountable to the children we serve, our donors, partners and the public. We will use our resources responsibly and efficiently to fulfill our mission.
- We will maintain transparent communication with all stakeholders, providing accurate and timely information about our activities, financial status and the impact of our programs.

3. Respect and Dignity

- We recognize the inherent worth and dignity of every individual, including the children we serve, our team members and collaborators.
- We will treat everyone with respect, empathy and fairness, irrespective of their background, race, ethnicity, religion or any other characteristic.

4. Child Protection

- The safety, well-being and rights of the children we serve are our top priority. We are committed to ensuring their protection from harm, exploitation and any form of abuse.
- We will comply with all applicable laws and international standards related to child protection, and we will continually strive to improve our practices in this regard.

5. Integrity and Honesty

- We will conduct all our activities with the highest level of integrity and honesty. Our actions will be guided by ethical considerations and we will not compromise our values for personal gain or organizational benefit.

6. Confidentiality

- We will respect and protect the confidentiality of sensitive information, particularly that which pertains to the children and families we work with.
- Confidential information will only be disclosed with proper consent or when required by law.

7. Conflict of Interest

- We will avoid situations that could compromise our objectivity or create conflicts of interest. Any potential conflicts will be disclosed and managed appropriately.

8. Continuous Improvement

- We are committed to continuous learning and improvement. We will regularly review and assess our practices, seeking ways to enhance the impact and effectiveness of our programs.

Conclusion

By adhering to this Code of Ethics, all members of Orphans Feeding Foundation pledge to uphold the principles of integrity, accountability and compassion. We recognize that these principles are essential in achieving our mission and ensuring the well-being of those we serve.
